PROTECTING THE HUDSON RIVER AND ITS WATERSHED: A Community Conversation

Join us for an insightful online event exploring the Hudson River's vital role in our environment and the challenges facing its watershed. We'll dive into the ecology and health of this important water system, hear from experts about their work and experiences, and discuss its impact on Rockland County. Sr. Kathleen McManus will share a reflection on the sacredness of the Hudson River and the significance of water in our religious tradition.
